BEFORE YOU GO

WEATHER

November is crisp and dry: 8–17°C in Kyoto, a little warmer in Osaka. A light jacket and a compact umbrella cover most days.

PACKING

Comfortable walking shoes are essential. Bring a small day bag, a refillable bottle, and socks you can slip off for temple visits.

GETTING AROUND

Your 7-day Kansai rail pass covers the airport train, Kyoto buses, and the Nara and Osaka trains. IC cards are fine for everything else.

MONEY

Japan is still cash-friendly. Carry ¥20,000–30,000 for small shops and temples; most hotels and larger restaurants take cards.

ETIQUETTE

Quiet voices on trains, no eating while walking, and no tipping. At shrines, follow the temizuya hand-washing steps and keep phone calls brief.

EMERGENCY

Your advisor is reachable on WhatsApp for the whole trip. In an emergency, dial 119 for ambulance or fire, 110 for police.

GOOD TO KNOW Reserve Kyoto restaurants two to three weeks ahead. Many small counters do not take walk-ins, and the best ones fill up before the weekend. For Osaka, book the teamLab slot for the evening of Day 5 if you want a quieter Dotonbori.
